Conclusions

Checklist

Practice examples from different countries

Governance and cooperation

Cooperation of national, regional and local actors - national coordination – progressive approach - subsidiarity – cross-sectoral cooperation – stakeholder involvement – sustainable funding - monitoring and evaluation

Data collection & monitoring

Forms of data collection - sensitivity and relevance of data – transparency – use of data

Prevention

Access to good quality ECEC – relevant and engaging curriculum - avoiding early tracking and class repetition – integration of migrants and minorities - smooth transition between educational levels – well-developed VET system – open access to upper secondary education – involve young people in decision making – teacher education - guidance

Intervention

Effective and evidence-based early warning systems – focus on individual needs – whole school approaches – extra-curricula and out-of-school activities – systemic support frameworks – developing staff capacities – strong school leadership – empowering families and parents – involving local communities

Compensation

Accessibility and relevance of 2nd chance education – making a difference - commitment and governance – stimulating physical learning environment – personalised approach – flexibility – teacher involvement and support – links to mainstream education

Key messages

Ensure long-term political and financial commitment to reducing ESL, keep it high on political agenda.

Implement sustainable national strategy to reduce ESL

- address all levels of education and training and
- right mix of prevention, intervention and compensation

Put children /young people at centre of all ESL policies. Take their voice into account.

Invest in the knowledge base of ESL, through regular and timely collection of reliable and accurate data and information.

Ensure that data and information on ESL is accessible and used effectively in policy development.

Ensure monitoring and evaluation of measures steers policy development.

Key messages

Ensure policy development and implementation is based on strong, long-term cooperation

- between national, regional, local authorities, stakeholders and
- between different policies, e.g. through a coordinating body.

Remove obstacles within the school education system that may hinder young people in completing upper secondary education (tracking, repetition, inflexible pathways, difficult transition btw levels of education).

Ensure smooth transition between different levels of education

Provide access to high quality education (including ECEC), and high quality VET for all.

Key messages

Support schools to develop conductive and supportive learning environments focusing on the needs of the individual pupils.

Promote a curriculum that is relevant and engaging. Promote multi-professional teams in schools to address early school leaving.

Support cooperation between schools, local communities, parents and pupils in school development and in initiatives to reduce ESL.

Promote strong commitment of all stakeholders at local levels, including local employers and businesses, to reduce ESL

Promote the understanding of ESL in initial education and continuous professional development of school staff and especially teachers.

Support them in their efforts to provide differentiated learning support for pupils in an inclusive and individualised way.

Strengthen guidance and counselling so young people are aware of study options, employment prospects.

Key messages

Reinforce accessibility to second chance schemes for all young people.

Make second chance schemes distinctive and ensure they provide a positive learning experience.

Support teachers in second chance in their specific role and needs

Checklist on comprehensive policies

- Tool for self-assessment for countries, region or local authorities who are developing or implementing policies against ESL
- Help identify areas for further improvement

Annex 1 Checklist on comprehensive policies

This table presents a progression continuum in the development of comprehensive policies to reduce early school leaving (ESL). The left side of the table reflects the starting position of many countries in developing their comprehensive policies against ESL and the right side presents good practice identified by members of the Thematic Working Group. This checklist can be used to self-assess current policies to reduce ESL by trying to locate the position of current policies and where countries could aspire to using the progression continuum marked by the arrows and different level of shading

		Progression continuum
Governance	There is no common strategic approach to address ESL.	▶	▶	▶	▶	The country has a sustainable strategy to reduce ESL that is nationally coordinated.
	Political commitment to reduce ESL is low.	▶	▶	▶	▶	There is sustained political commitment from policy makers, educational authorities and stakeholders to reduce ESL.
	Measures and programmes to reduce ESL do not cover the entire education and training (ET) system.	▶	▶	▶	▶	The strategy covers the entire education and training (ET) system including provision for special education needs (SEN).
	ESL is mainly addressed within education policy; Initiatives from other relevant policy areas (e.g. health, youth, employment) are not coordinated with education policies and measures to reduce ESL.	▶	▶	▶	▶	Measures supporting the reduction of ESL are integrated into all relevant policies aimed at children and young people.
	There is no coordination at national level.	▶	▶	▶	▶	There is a coordinating body at national level that which ensures coordination across different policy sectors and with relevant stakeholders.
	There is no regular exchange of good practices.	▶	▶	▶	▶	There is a regular exchange of good practices at all levels.
	Monitoring is underdeveloped; there is no possibility to measure in a consistent way the effectiveness and efficiency of measures and programmes.	▶	▶	▶	▶	Monitoring and evaluation is embedded in the design of the strategy to reduce ESL and within all of its measures and programmes. Monitoring and evaluation is consistently used to test/assess efficiency and effectiveness.
